All mandatory expenses are to be paid to Nanzan University upon admission and before coming to Japan. Invoices are issued and sent with the admission materials.

The application fee should be sent with the application materials. This fee is waived for exchange students. (Please see the Application Procedures section for details.)

The admission fee is a non-refundable fee charged to all new students. This fee is waived for exchange students.

The tuition fee also includes facilities fees (for the maintenance and improvement of university facilities).

The housing fee is ¥60,000 per month regardless of the type of accommodation arranged. (Please see the Accommodation section for details.)

The security deposit is collected from all students, including exchange students and scholarship recipients. It is used to cover any debts left outstanding and any damage done to school or private property. The unused portion is refunded when the student leaves the Center.

The accident insurance fee is collected from all students. It is subject to change without prior notice.

The National Health Insurance fee varies depending on each individual's situation. Figures given here are estimates for reference purposes. (Please see the Health and Accident Insurance section for further information.)

The textbook fees are estimates of the cost of study materials and vary depending on the courses taken.

Miscellaneous expenses vary from student to student and are based on an average expenditure of ¥60,000 per month, which includes commuting expenses to and from the University, meals, and other personal expenses.
