Summer Program Applications: February 1 – 28, 2019
Deadline: February 28, 2019

The Center for Japanese Studies at Nanzan University, renowned as a leader in the field of Japanese language education for more than 40 years, is now offering an intensive summer program of the same quality as its rigorous regular Japanese programs. From 2018 we expanded our summer program to accommodate more students for longer periods – up to eight weeks! If you really want to learn Japanese, join our new summer program. We aim to offer places for approximately 70 students. You can choose from the following three courses!

Course A: 8-WEEK INTENSIVE JAPANESE

Course B: 4-WEEK INTENSIVE JAPANESE + 4-WEEK INTERNSHIP

Students eligible to apply for Course B should have finished Japanese III at CJS, had about 150 hours of intermediate Japanese course at university level, or passed JLPT N3.

Course C: 4-WEEK INTENSIVE JAPANESE

Japanese Studies for Course A (90 min. × 2 times/week × 8 weeks) [Optional]

The Japanese Studies course has two components taught in English:

- A: Contemporary Japanese Politics and Economy
- B: Japanese Culture, with a particular focus on representative works of Japanese literature

We offer two practical Japanese language seminars:

- Integrated Approach to Intermediate Japanese
- Advanced Intermediate Japanese

Students are able to register for Open Courses from the regular undergraduate program at the University. The CJS summer program matches the second quarter of the Nanzan University undergraduate program.
