

14000 INTENSIVE JAPANESE 400

INSTRUCTORS: Masahiko Mutsukawa, Akiko Tsuda, Emi Satō, Toshihiro Asai, Miyuki Doi

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course aims to further develop the four language skills of speaking, listening, reading, and writing, using materials from a variety of sources. By the end of the course, students should be able to express themselves with considerable flexibility and creativity in accurate and appropriate Japanese in a variety of social settings. Students learn how to write an essay, based on research and interviews and using the grammatical patterns, expressions, and vocabulary that they have learned. Students are then required to give an oral presentation of their paper. Upon completion of the course, students should have mastered about 580 kanji.

COURSE SCHEDULE

While reviewing the important grammatical points and structural patterns studied at IJ200 and IJ300 levels, this course covers the first 10 lessons of the textbook, An Integrated Approach to Intermediate Japanese. Classes involve the following activities:

- Speaking
  - Study and practice of the “Conversations” sections, which handle various language levels
  - Familiarization with functional expressions such as for making requests, obtaining permission, and extending invitations
  - Discussion on topics found in reading materials
  - Oral presentation of assigned papers
- Writing
  - Practice in writing compositions using patterns learned, including da-style of written Japanese
  - Use of a Japanese word-processor
  - Study of kanji, mainly through kanji worksheets
- Reading
  - Intensive reading practice using the “Texts for Reading” sections
  - Practice of skimming and scanning skills using the “Texts for Speed Reading” and supplementary readings
- Listening and pronunciation
  - Listening and pronunciation practice in the language laboratory
- Other activities
  - Study of “Culture Notes” sections, which contain information on contemporary Japanese customs, culture, and social phenomena
