

Janssen International Residence

Opened in April 2022, Janssen International Residence was named after the founder of the Society of the Divine Word, St. Arnold Janssen. This is a dormitory where students from Japan and many other countries with a diverse range of values live together and learn from each other. It offers an educational program called the 'Skill Development Program for Diversity and Inclusion'.

Location	〒466-0823 138-1 Yagumo-cho, Showa-ku, Nagoya, Japan
Access	Next to campus
Monthly Rent	JPY 60,000 (utilities and free Wi-Fi included) *Additional participation fee for the educational program required: JPY 1,000 / month.
Rooms	Four story building with 178 individual rooms including two universal designed rooms. Living areas are separated for male and female students and others.
Individual Room	An IC key system is used to maintain security. Furnished with bed (bedding set available), closet, desk, chair, lights, curtains, air conditioner, Wi-Fi, etc.
Facilities	[Kitchen and Dining Room] shared among up to 10 students of 1 Living Group lighting, cupboards, refrigerator-freezer, induction cooker, microwave oven, toaster, rice cooker, air conditioner, Wi-Fi, TV, vacuum cleaner, separate garbage cans, etc. provided [Bathrooms & Shower Rooms] shared among up to 20 students of 2 adjacent Living Groups [Shared Living Rooms] available on each floor [Elevator] Yes [Laundry Rooms] Coin-operated laundries (washing machines and dryers) on each floor. [Bicycle parking lot] Yes [Parking lot] No [Caretaker] Yes (24 hours)
Others	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • No deposit, key money, or commission is required to move in. • Other than the above, please prepare everything you need for daily life by yourself. However, you are NOT allowed to bring furniture or large appliances. • Please check our website for the latest information.