Listen to the following example.

W: Can we leave now?

M: Wait. I'm not ready. Don't worry we won't be late. It's 2 hours before the movie starts.

W: I know, but the traffic into the city is always very heavy at this time of the evening.

M: Okay. I'll be ready in a minute.

Question: Why does the woman want to leave soon? The correct answer is C.

Now we will begin the test.

(A) Listening 1～10 では、会話やアナウンスのあとに質問が続きますので、それに対する最も適切な答えを選びなさい。

Listening 1

W: Are you ready for dessert, sir?

M: Yes. I'd like some ice cream. What flavors do you have?

W: We have vanilla, chocolate, green tea, and the special for today is rum raisin.

M: Hmm... Usually I go for chocolate, but I feel like something different today. I'm not really fond of green tea. You know what, I'll have the special.

W: And would you like coffee or tea with that?

M: Coffee, please.

49. What flavor ice cream will the man have?

Listening 2

M: I just got my class schedule, and my classes on Monday are in four different buildings.

W: That's too bad. Where are your classes?

M: Well, first period I'm in building ten and the next period I'm in fourteen.

W: That's not too bad. At least they're both new buildings.

M: That's true, but I'm on the sixth floor in the second period. I don't like waiting for the elevators.

W: They do get really crowded, don't they? Where are you after lunch?

M: Building twelve followed by building nine.

W: I have a class in building twelve in period four, not third period like you.

50. Where will the man have his class during period two?

Listening 3

M: What do you want to do tomorrow?

W: Well, we could go to the Plum Tree Festival. The trees are blooming and it should be really pretty.

M: Sounds fun. Let's go in the afternoon at 1 o'clock.

W: No, it's going to rain in the afternoon. We should leave home as early as possible, like 8:30.

M: What time does the festival start?

W: At 9 o'clock.

M: What if we leave around 10:30? Then we can have lunch there.

W: Lunch would be nice, but I think we should go earlier. We're bound to have a problem finding a parking spot from about 10 o'clock onwards.

M: Yeah, okay. Let's go half an hour before the festival begins. I want to get a parking spot this year and enjoy the festival.

51. What time do the couple plan to leave for the festival?

Listening 4

M: Hi, Gina. Sorry again that I couldn't make it to your party last week. Did you get the birthday card I sent?

W: Yeah, Mike. I did get it. Thanks for that.

M: How was your birthday?

W: Actually, I had a great time. My dad and I went ice skating in the morning and he also gave me a nice new coat. It's really warm.

M: That sounds nice. Did you finally get to try out the new ice skates your mum gave you?

W: Yes, and they fit perfectly, too. She always gets me great things.

M: Not like your brother! Was it another strange book this year?

W: It was a book, but this year I told him exactly which one to get me.

M: That was a good idea. Sounds like you had a really nice birthday.

52. What did Gina's father give her for her birthday?

Listening 5

W: Wow, this meal is really delicious. You're a really good cook.

M: Oh, it's nothing. I've been cooking for years. I love it and find it really relaxing.

W: Well, you're really good at it. Did your mother teach you how to cook when you were a child?

M: I wish she had, but I wasn't interested when I was really young. I tried learning by myself when I started going to university and had to live alone. But I had absolutely no skill at the time. Then I got a part-time job at a restaurant and the cooks showed me how to make a range of different dishes.

W: Have you thought about going to cooking school? You could open up your own restaurant, then.

M: Well, I thought about that, but it seems like too much work. Besides, I prefer just cooking for myself, or a few friends.

53. How did the man learn to cook?

Listening 6

M: Excuse me, could you help me?

W: Perhaps. What's the problem?

M: I'm trying to find the International Students' Office. I thought it was right here.

W: It used to be, but it moved to another building.

M: Oh, no. Is it far? I'm late. I was supposed to be there 15 minutes ago.

W: It isn't far, but I'm not sure that it's still open. I'll call to check, if you'd like.

M: No, that's alright. I'll find it myself. Could you just show me where it is on the map?

W: Well, it's a little hard to explain. I'm headed in that direction anyway. Follow me.

M: If it's not too much trouble.

54. What will the woman do next to help the man?

Listening 7

M: I picked up some brochures from the travel agent earlier. Do you want to have a look?

W: Oh, yes please. I can't wait until the holidays!

M: Me neither. How about this one? Nagano is much cooler in the summer, so we can escape the heat.

W: What are you talking about? I love the heat. Okinawa, that's where I want to go. Sunbathing, swimming. I want to go somewhere I can really relax.

M: A beach holiday? Boring! How about some culture? We can go to Tokyo and visit all the different art galleries and museums. We also can do some shopping.

W: Hmm. That doesn't sound too relaxing. What else have you got?

M: Hokkaido? We can go horse riding along the mountain trails.

W: You know we don't have to go together. I'd really prefer to go someplace where I can relax. That's all I plan to do this year.

M: Yeah, okay. You do that and I'll go up north and cool down.

55. Where will the woman go for her vacation?

Listening 8

Ladies and gentlemen, may I have your attention please? Due to a problem with the track, all train services from this station have been suspended. Therefore, we will be operating a bus service to take you to other stations in the city. If you want to catch the bus to stations in the western part of the city, take the number eleven. That bus leaves at 3:50, so you will have to hurry. The bus bound for southern stations, the number three, leaves ten minutes later, at 4. The bus to the north is the number seven and will leave at 4:15. The number nine bus, leaving at 4:30, will take you to eastern areas. Please talk to our station staff if you have any questions.

56. What time does the number eleven bus leave?

Listening 9

M: Can I go to the beach today, mum? All my friends are going!

W: No! You have to do your history report. It's due on Monday. It's Saturday and you haven't even started it yet.

M: I can do it tomorrow! It won't take long! Please!

W: You also have to clean your room. It's a mess.

M: But I did that last week.

W: You have to tidy your room every week.

M: Mum! Can't I do that tomorrow, too?

W: No. Don't forget that you also have to buy a new pair of shoes. And have you called your grandmother, yet? You haven't called her in two weeks.

M: Okay, okay, I'll do that first thing tomorrow morning, I promise! And then I'll go and buy the shoes. I'll also clean my room this evening. Mum, please!

W: And the report?

M: Tomorrow afternoon. I promise.

W: Well, if you promise to do all of that, I guess you can go to the beach today.

M: Thanks, Mum!

57. What does the boy intend to do first on Sunday morning?

Listening 10

M: Hi, Katie. Are you looking to buy some furniture for your new apartment?

W: Hello, Danny. Actually, yes, I am.

M: What do you need to get?

W: I'm going to get some new chairs to go with my dining table, and I'm also going to buy a large sofa.

M: Are you keeping any of your old furniture?

W: Yeah, I'm keeping the bed and some other things from my old apartment.

M: I'm actually looking for a carpet. They've got some nice ones in this store.

W: Yeah, I got one here yesterday.

M: They have great prices here, don't they? The curtains are good value, too.

W: Thanks for reminding me. I need to buy some of them as well.

58. What has the woman already bought from the store?

M: Hi Grace. It's me, Will. I'm calling to make sure that you're still okay to go camping this weekend.

W: I'm sorry, I was just about to call you. I'm afraid that I have to cancel. Something has come up at the office that I need to deal with.

M: Oh, that's too bad. The others will be so disappointed.

W: Please send my apologies. I was so looking forward to taking a long hike. I was hoping to do a little bit of climbing in the mountains, too. I really need the exercise.

M: I thought that you'd started working out every day to get fit for this weekend.

W: That's right, I did. I managed to do it for a week, but I've not been able to go to the gym for several weeks.

M: Oh, yeah. The gym's been closed for a while, hasn't it?

W: It was, but it actually reopened last month.

M: So, don't tell me you got injured, again. Is that why you stopped going?

W: No, recently I've just got way too much work. I did injure my left knee two weeks ago, though. The doctor told me to rest it for a couple of days and now it's okay.

M: I'm glad to hear it. I'll try to organize another camping trip next month. I hope you can come.

W: That'll be great. I can take some vacation time then and so I can definitely join you.

Listening 12

M: Mary, Jimmy's passport expires next month. We need to get it renewed.

W: So soon?

M: Well, it's been five years.

W: Right. So, what do we have to do?

M: Well, I've downloaded an application from the Internet, and I've already filled it out. Next we have to make an appointment at the Canadian passport office.

W: Here in Nagoya?

M: We have to go to Osaka. The office here in Nagoya doesn't handle passport renewals.

W: We have to go to Tokyo next week. Can't we renew it there like we did last time?

M: We were only able to do that because we were living in Sendai at that time. And Sendai residents have to renew in Tokyo.

W: Well, that settles that. When can we take care of it?

M: I've checked the schedule. There aren't too many appointments available next week. In fact, the only available times are on Wednesday morning, Thursday afternoon, or Friday both in the morning and the afternoon.

W: I like Wednesday morning.

M: That doesn't work for me. I've got work on Wednesday. Thursday is no good either. How about Friday? I'm free in the afternoon. We can get there by 3 o'clock, and then have dinner while we're there.

W: I don't want to come back home too late. Friday morning would be better.

M: That doesn't work. Remember, Jimmy has a doctor's appointment then.

W: Okay, we'll go with your preference, but you'd better find a nice restaurant for dinner.

Listening 13

You will hear an announcement to passengers on board a cruise ship. Look at the 5 sentences below. Decide if each sentence is TRUE or FALSE. If it is TRUE, choose (A). If it is FALSE, choose (B).

Good morning everyone! I hope you all slept well and enjoyed breakfast in one of our fine restaurants. The bad weather of the past few days seems to be behind us and the forecast for the next few days is for good weather and calm waters.

We will be arriving in port in about 30 minutes, and I want to make sure everyone is aware of today's schedule, including some changes. First of all, don't forget that today you must be back on board by 9:30pm. We know this is an hour earlier than in other ports, but because of the local tides we must insist you be back no later than 9:30. If you go out for dinner or drinks in town, be sure to reserve early and finish with enough time to get back.

There are two different day tours in this port. If you have already signed up for the rainforest and volcano bus tour, just be at the bus on the dock by 10 o'clock. Our other tour, the walk around the city, has a few changes. We've had to delay our scheduled start time by half an hour, so please come to the dock at half past 10. This also means that we've had to delay our lunch break by 30 minutes, so we will now break for our meal at 1 o'clock and gather together again after lunch at 2 o'clock, near the main entrance to the market.

Whatever your plans today, I hope you have a wonderful time.

Listening 14

You will hear a man called Alex talking to a woman called Yuko about watering plants in his apartment. Look at the 5 sentences below. Decide if each sentence is TRUE or FALSE. If it is TRUE, choose (A). If it is FALSE, choose (B).

Alex: Hello, Yuko! Look, I'm sorry to bother you, but I was wondering if you could do me a favour?

Yuko: Hello Alex. Yes, of course. What's up?

Alex: Well, as you know, I'm going to Spain tomorrow for a couple of weeks. I need someone to look after my plants. My brother was supposed to come to water them, but he broke his arm yesterday. Do you think that you would be able to look after them instead?

Yuko: I think so. How often would you like me to come? Is once a week okay?

Alex: Actually, twice a week, if you can.

Yuko: Yeah, that won't be a problem.

Alex: Okay, great! Thanks a lot. You remember the two plant pots outside the entrance to my apartment? I'll leave my spare apartment key under the white pot next to the door. Keep it with you and then drop it into my mailbox when you come for the last time.

Yuko: Okay. Got it.

Alex: Inside the apartment, all the plants in the living room need watering twice a week. And the same applies to my plants in the bedroom, except the one next to my bedroom window, which only needs to be watered once a week.

Yuko: Okay.

Alex: Please don't forget. The plants don't do well in this heat.

Yuko: Don't worry. I did this for you a few years back. Remember?

Alex: Sorry. That's right, you did. Thanks again, Yuko!
